Dress to impress and be the centre of attention at every holiday party with gorgeous fashion and accessory picks from Lula Rock (#02-07). Using a mix of classic and non-traditional materials, the pieces from milliner Benoît Missolin are imbued with a natural sense of humour and fine artisanal finishing. From luxury rabbit felts and ostrich feather fringes to duchess silk, and organza, each piece pays homage to the styles of a bygone era, and is the perfect conversation starter at any gathering.

As one of the latest additions to the Lula Rock family, quirky accessories brand Les Petits Joueurs adds a touch of fun to any outfit. An exercise in abstract expressionism, the pieces by designer Mariasole Cecchi have an assured palette of primary shades, complemented by unique materials such as acrylic and fur, which give the bags a contemporary touch. With surprising details such as Lego bricks, the bags have an iconic appeal, and are made from the best in every detail, packed in made-to-measure bags and boxes designed and produced in Tuscany.

Seen on the likes of fashion doyennes such as Kate Moss, Chloë Sevigny, Natalie Imbruglia and Diane Kruger, eclectic Australian brand alice McCALL uses unique detailing and charming folk-like craftsmanship to create charismatic, modern keepsake collections. The brand's playful pieces combine elements of tender girlish charm and bohemian flare all mixed up with a bit of rock and roll – perfect for a party look that will turn heads.

GIFT IDEAS

Present the watch aficionado in your life the gift of a lifetime with stylish timepieces from Breitling (#01-04). The Transocean 38 houses a high-performance self-winding movement, and is available with either a steel mesh bracelet, perforated bracelet or leather strap - paying homage to the original Transocean first created in 1958. Now available in a 38mm diameter, it is the perfect size for all wrist sizes. For feminine wrists, Breitling also offers a mother-of-pearl dial (with or without diamond hour-markers), in addition to an optional gemset bezel.

The Colt Automatic and Avenger Blackbird are the ideal choices for an outdoor enthusiast. Sturdy and reliable, the Colt Automatic features a design that reinterprets all the essential assets on which the Colt has built its success. These include a broad unidirectional bezel adorned with four rider tabs – a Breitling signature feature – ensuring excellent handling while enhancing protection of the sapphire crystal which is glare proof on both sides. Besides a 44mm version equipped with a COSC certified self-winding movement, the new Colt Automatic is also available in three other versions: a watch and chronograph both equipped with SuperQuartz movement, and a 33mm Lady watch with an optional gemset bezel.
